INDOCHINA

I. A cable of 12 January from our Paris embassy raises some disturbing questions:

A. The French secretary for the Associated States Jacquet quoted an estimate made by Navarre in November that in two years the military situation in Indochina could be favorable for negotiations with the Communists.

1. This first time Navarre known to have talked of negotiations; he has always told US officials he planned a military victory.

II. Jacquet read to US Charge portions of Navarre's last Top Secret report to Paris.

A. Navarre said Chinese aid to Viet Minh now considerably increased, particularly in trucks, etc., heavy artillery and antiaircraft weapons,
